

CAPE MENTELLE CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2005

JAMES HALLIDAY, THE AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION 2010

94 POINTS

“Excellent colour, a fragrant, savoury medium-bodied wine, the bouquet and palate offering a seamless array of black fruits, earth, licorice and French oak; admirable texture, line and length.”

NICK STOCK, PENGUIN GOOD AUSTRALIAN WINE GUIDE 2010

93 POINTS

“This guardian of Margaret River’s excellent reputation in the world of cabernet is on form in 2005, showing plenty of leaves, roasting herbs and cassis-flavoured fruit. The palate is striking for its purity and balance, neatly defined tannins and long, elegant finish. This is spot on.”

HUON HOOKE, AUSTRALIAN GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE, AUGUST 2009

92 POINTS ★★★★★

“This is rich cabernet with meaty, toasty/smoky oak-suffused bouquet and flavour, leading into a savoury palate with assertive, drying tannins...”

TYSON STELZER, WINE BUSINESS MAGAZINE 100, JUNE 2009

95 POINTS

“This is an unashamedly cool Cabernet style from the south of Margaret River. It’s intricately assembled around a scaffold of blackcurrant fruit, veiled in a fine web of tannin, perfectly formed and all-pervading. It’s harmonious, integrated and seamless and demands two decades in the cellar”
