
CAPE MENTELLE MARMADUKE SHIRAZ 2012

WINE COMPANION, JAMES HALLIDAY, DECEMBER 2013

91 POINTS

“Bright colour; a neatly presented portrait of southern Margaret River shiraz, with its cool grown red berry fruit flavours given well measured support from tannins and oak.”

THE WEST AUSTRALIAN, RAY JORDAN, MARCH 2014

90 POINTS

“Made as a current drinking wine. It’s all plump and fleshy plummy fruit with a little tickle of oak adding to the fine ripe tannins in support. Medium bodied with a slight savoury spicy edge to it. Well-crafted wine for this price. Great value.”

THE WINE FRONT, GARY WALSH, SEPTEMBER 2013

90 POINTS

“Juicy mixed berry fruit, raspberry rope, pepper, lavender and aromatic dried herb stuff. Medium bodied, fleshy chalky tannin, bright fruit and a punchy finish of good length. For whatever reason, it has a sort of Spanish red wine character around it. Excellent. My kind of sub $20 red.”

MONEY MAGAZINE, PETER FORRESTAL, DECEMBER 2013

TOP 10 BEST-VALUED RED

“One of Margaret River’s pioneers, now under the ownership of LVMH and with chief winemaker Rob Mann at the helm, is making some of the most exciting wines in its history. This is the entry level red, a generously flavoured regional shiraz with ripe fleshy texture.”
