ZINFANDEL 2010

THE AUSTRALIAN WINE ANNUAL 2013, JEREMY OLIVER

96 POINTS

“An outstanding wine that reflects its varietal point of difference as well as its regionality. Heady, spicy aromas of blackberries, blueberries, sweet vanilla/cedary oak and drier herbs are lifted by a scent of rose petals and briar. It’s juicy, long and smooth, with a pristine, perfectly clear presence of brightly lit fruit underpinned by a fine, tight spine of crunchy tannins, finishing with a length, balance and a vivacious cut of acidity. About as non-Californian a zin as you could try, but don’t miss out on this wine!”
