

CAPE MENTELLE

MARGARET RIVER

CAMERON MURPHY

ESTATE DIRECTOR

A regular visitor to Margaret River since 2000, Cameron joined Cape Mentelle as Estate Director in July 2014. Now living in idyllic Margaret River, he has a long-held passion for Cape Mentelle and the surrounding region as Australia's finest.

Following various wine industry management & business roles based in Australia and the UK, Cameron joined the Moët Hennessy group in 2005 as Key Account Manager based in Sydney and then onto Queensland State Manager before becoming Business Development Manager for the Moët Hennessy Estates & Wines portfolio in 2008, representing the international wine estates within the Asia Pacific markets.

Cameron is now responsible for Cape Mentelle's overall business with a focus on communicating Margaret River's unique wine proposition and qualities all around the world, and ensuring Cape Mentelle continues to be at the leading edge of Australia's best wineries.
