

CAPE MENTELLE

MARGARET RIVER

CAMERON MURPHY

ESTATE DIRECTOR

A regular visitor to Margaret River since 2000, Cameron joined Cape Mentelle as Estate Director in July 2014. Now living in idyllic Margaret River, he has a long-held passion for Cape Mentelle and the region's wines as Australia's finest.

Following 10 years in various wine industry distribution & business roles based in Australia and the UK, Cameron joined the Moët Hennessy group in 2005 in Sydney and then moved to Brisbane as Queensland State Manager. In 2008 Cameron took on the role of Business Development- Asia Pacific with the Moët Hennessy Estates & Wines portfolio.

Cameron is responsible for Cape Mentelle's overall business and strategy, with a focus on communicating Margaret River's unique wine proposition around the world and ensuring that Cape Mentelle continues to be at the leading edge of Australia's best estates.
