SHIRAZ 2012

THE WEEKEND WEST, RAY JORDAN

97 POINTS

“Positively stunning shiraz from this great Margaret River producer. Deep and powerful, yet with remarkable elegance and style. Spices and blackberry on the nose with a little blueberry and chocolate nuance. The palate has a sinewy thread holding the oak and tannin around the intense driving fruit flavours. An engaging savoury finish. All class.”

WINE COMPANION 2014, JAMES HALLIDAY

96 POINTS

“Strikes the palate like a well-timed cover drive. This is a wine of sweet and savoury impact. Black cherries, cloves, olives and floral notes. Quite beautiful. Tannin infused with notes of crushed dry leaf and earth. Scoots through your mouth and lingers appreciably.”

AUSTRALIAN GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE 2014

94 POINTS

“This Shiraz is dark red/ purple, scented with dry spices and pepper. Its tannins are assertive on a very focused palate. Full-bodied, concentrated and powerful, it boasts penetration and length.”

THE AUSTRALIAN WINE ANNUAL 2015, JEREMY OLIVIER

92 POINTS

“Underpinned by a thread of mint and menthol, this fine-grained shiraz of full to medium weight has a sweet, dusty and peppery bouquet of vibrant cassis, redcurrants, raspberries and dark plums tightly knit with fresh cedar/ vanilla oak. Supported by a dusty spine of crunchy tannin, its charming presence of intense, spicy small black and red berries, polished oak and slightly herbal/menthol notes finishes with a hint of tomato bush.”
